MINERAL COUNTY NOW STRONGER THAN EVER

As Workmen See the Jokers in the Adamson Law and Like Record of Hughes.

KEYSER, Oct. 26.—Mineral county Republicans were never before so enthusiastic as they are this year, and it is not now a question of carrying the county by the normal Republican majority, but how high above that figure the majority can be made. The labor men were among the first to see the jokers in the Adamson law, and when it was found that this bill set a precedent which would put every labor union under legislative control, to be handed down in Washington, instead of in the lodges of the union men, the working men were quick to see that this was the very thing they did not want. When the railroad man found that not only had they lost in the Adamson bill the right for making their own demands and winning them as in the past, but that President Wilson has let it be known that he will insist on the clause for compulsory arbitration at the command of Congress, and that any railroad man can, under the provisions of the Adamson bill, be fined up to $1,000 for breaking any clause of it, actually including his refusal to work less than sixteen hours a day, this settled the question as to Wilson's weakness in this country, for Hughes is known widely here as the laboring man's friend when governor of New York and always, and when it was understood as now that the railroad presidents and not the railroad brotherhoods have been the beneficiaries under the Adamson bill, any strength Wilson had at first gathered among railroad workers was quickly swept away.

Robinson's strength in Mineral county is too well known to need much comment. The laboring men and tradesmen here have watched John J. Cornwell's record on union labor, and knew it long before he announced himself as a candidate for governor. Even Democratic laboring men know that if Cornwell is a "policy attorney" he is a policy attorney for any labor union or any class of labor. Watch Mineral county roll up a Republican majority of 600 for Hughes, Robinson, George M. Boxers for Congress, Sutherland for the Senate and the whole Republican ticket, including a clean sweep for county offices.

CORNWELL ADMITS HATFIELD'S CHARGE

That He is Riding on Railroad and Pullman Company Passes in the Campaign.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 25.—That he is riding on a Baltimore and Ohio and a Pullman Company pass was the admission made publicly here last night by John J. Cornwell, the Democratic candidate for governor, when he was forced to reply to a series of questions propounded to him by a local Republican newspaper. Cornwell attempted to justify his use of the railroad pass by saying that his opponent, Ira E. Robinson, was formerly counsel for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and that he rode on a pass while representing the railroad company. The Democratic nominee was hounded with a series of questions regarding his position on various matters but replied only to three questions. He acknowledged the truth of the charge that he rode on railroad passes denied that John T. McGraw had paid his assessment when he was a candidate for governor in 1904 and in response to a question as to whether he would in the event of his election as governor "urge the negro race," he evaded an answer by reading an excerpt from a deed given by the Republican state official in which restriction was made that the property should not be rented to colored people. He did not state what his position would be as to disfranchisement of the negroes.

He evaded all questions concerning his criticism of the policies of President Wilson and also failed to answer the question as to what department of state government recently created, he would abolish if he became governor.

The questions which Cornwell refused to answer were as follows:

Do you still hold the same opinion, Mr. Cornwell, of Louis Brandeis and Samuel Untermyer as when you referred to them in your newspaper as "two muckraking Jew lawyers" or has your opinion been changed by the appointment of Mr. Brandeis to the supreme court of the United States?

Do you feel the same way you felt just a year ago this month, when you wrote about the Wilson recognition of Carranza, "Here is to first Chief Carranza, cattle thief and murderer. You are all tarred with the same stick, that is, all Mexican chiefs. Our government has recognized you as the head of Mexico's government. May you live long and prosper."

Do you still feel that President Wilson played the coward when he signed the bill exempting farmers and labor organizations from prosecutions under the anti-trust laws?

Are you still of the opinion that the exemption measure was an example of "trucking, cowardly and discriminatory legislation" on which you declared the president "should have set the seal of his condemnation?"

Do you still regard President Wilson as you wrote of him in your newspaper, "The student, the author, kidglove, cold and selfish to an al-

San Felice Cigars FIVE CENTS STRAIGHT AND WORTH IT

Owing to the greatly increased cost of quality tobaccos, in fact everything pertaining to high grade cigars, the makers of the San Felice cigars, The Deisel-Wemmer Company, have advanced the selling price to the jobbers and Dealers, and heretofore this cigar will positively be sold to the consumer at 5 cents straight instead of six for a quarter as previously.

The SAN FELICE is national in its scope and character, having justly attained this eminence through its unexcelled excellence. To maintain this unequalled standard of quality, the advance in question is absolutely unavoidable. The generous support of all men using quality cigars is earnestly desired.—Advertisement.

most unheard of degree?"

Do you still think as you evidently nomination at Baltimore was accomplished by Mr. Bryan's conspicuous example of base treachery?"

Do you still think as you evidently thought when you wrote an editorial for your paper November 5, 1913, that President Wilson's Mexican policy "is bringing us close to a dangerous misunderstanding with the great European powers?"

Do you propose if you are elected governor of West Virginia to urge the disfranchisement of citizens of the negro race, a thing your wing of the Democratic party has attempted to do again and again?

Do you propose to abandon the policy of laying the burden of taxation as much as possible on the privileged interests and will you attempt as you did down to 1894 to raise most of the state revenue from direct levies on the farms and homes of the people of the state?

Will you go back to the anti-Dawson law treatment of the great corporate interests of the state, taxing them at one-tenth of the amount they are now compelled to pay and making up the balance by an increase of the average individual taxpayer's burden?

Do you propose to abolish the state tax commissioner's office, as you Democrats tried to do in 1911?

Do you propose to wipe off the state books the great progressive measures enacted under Republican administration, such as the public service commission law, the workmen's compensation act, the mine inspection service laws, the measures safeguarding the public health, the board of control law, the law safeguarding labor, the county salaries law, the county depository law?

Will you do away with the department of public accounting, the new budget system and the annual audit of the state's finances?

The increase in the number of officials, of which you complain, is due to the inauguration of these new agencies of the government. Which of these activities do you propose to discontinue?

Democrats Raise False Cry to Support Wilson

Guy D. Goff Declares "President Kept Us Out of War" Sordid Issue.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 26.—"There has never at any time been a disposition on the part of Mr. Hughes or the Republican party to plunge this country into war," declared Guy D. Goff, when asked if he had considered President Wilson's remarks of Saturday that "he was not now expecting the country to get into war, because he did not have a chance to make a mess of it."

"No American who loves his country has ever wanted war," continued Mr. Goff. "Holland, Switzerland, Sweden, Norway and Denmark, surrounded on all sides by the warring nations, have never at any time found it necessary to enter the war. No European country has wanted to fight us. Every European country has wanted us to keep out of the war. The American people have been firmly opposed to entering the war, and Congress, as the present administration well knows, would never have voted to declare war."

Hughes is for Peace.
"Mr. Hughes has declared time and time again that he is for peace, and that he has no intention of looking for trouble with any country. In this he reflects the sentiment of the American people. Only the other day he said at Philadelphia: 'I shall, to the utmost of my ability, maintain American rights on land and sea throughout the whole world, with respect to all nations, as to American lives, American property and American commerce.'"

"And in his speech at Kansas City, Mr. Hughes said: 'We shall only suffer in our esteem and the esteem of the world, if we lack determination, firmness and constancy in the maintenance of our just rights, with respect to all nations, according to the rules of international law.'"

"In his Omaha speech Mr. Hughes said: 'I stand for peace, but I stand for the dignity of American manhood and the ideals are not incompatible. And this I assert, if America will stand firm for her known rights, will be recognized and respected by every nation on earth.'"

"At the very foundation of this government George Washington uttered the immortal words: 'There is a rank due to the United States which will be withheld, if not absolutely lost, by the reputation of weakness.' He recognized that to forfeit the friendship and the confidence of the world was to incur the contempt and the disdain of all foreign nations. The issues of this campaign are the honor, the security, and the independence of this country; and the protection and the observance of the fundamental rights of our citizens."

Most Demoralizing Issue.
"The cry that 'Wilson has kept us out of war' is the most demoralizing, sordid and ignominious issue that has ever been raised in the United States. It is a false cry, without a vestige of truth. No one knows this better than Mr. Wilson. The fact is that we have

Answer Promptly

Promptness in answering is a courtesy that your telephone caller appreciates; delay may cause him to abandon the call.

Records show that in nearly seven out of every one hundred telephone calls there is a delay of more than a minute before the called party answers, and in one of each four of these cases the party calling does not wait.

The habit of answering your telephone promptly is one that will do much to improve the service not only to yourself, but to those who call you.
